NO. 104.

CANDIDATES.
[All announcements to be paid for in advance.]
I respectfully announce myself a candidate for the office of Clerk of the Court, subject to the decision of the primary election, and respectfully request the support of my fellow citizens.
ap 22-2pe J. F. HAMBLEY.

TO THE VOTERS OF ALEXANDRIA.
I respectfully announce myself a candidate for re-election to the office of Collector of the Northern District, subject to the action of the conservative primary election.
ap 17-2pe JOHN T. HILL.

TO THE VOTERS OF ALEXANDRIA.
I announce myself as a candidate for Superintendent of Police, subject to the decision of the primary election.
ap 16-2pe JAS. A. JAVINS.

I RESPECTFULLY announce myself a candidate for the office of Superintendent of Police, subject to the decision of the primary election.
ap 11-2pe GEORGE E. PRICE.

I RESPECTFULLY announce myself a candidate for the office of Collector of Taxes for the Northern District, subject to the action of the conservative primary election.
ap 8-2pe GEO. H. MARKELL.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE CITY OF ALEXANDRIA.—At the request of some of my friends and fellow citizens, I hereby announce myself a candidate for re-election to the position of Commonwealth's Attorney of the city of Alexandria. This announcement is made subject to the action of a nominating convention or primary election of the conservative party. If I am re-elected to the office I shall devote my time, energy and ability to the discharge of the legitimate duties pertaining to it.
ap 2 JOHN M. JOHNSON.

I ANNOUNCE myself a candidate for the office of City Sergeant, subject to the decision of the primary election, and respectfully request the support of my fellow citizens.
mh 20-2pe U. M. MONROE.

TO THE PEOPLE OF ALEXANDRIA.—I take this method of announcing myself a candidate for the office of City Sergeant. Two years ago you appointed me to fill this place in a manner so flattering to myself that I feel now, as I did then, that my best efforts could never discharge the obligations under which you have placed me. For that manifestation of your confidence and regard I have labored to fulfill the duties of the office so that no one should regret the election you then made, and I hope I have done so acceptably to all. If I have met your approbation in the past and should receive your endorsement again I can only pledge a continuance of the same official conduct in the future. I believe I have discharged my duties to the satisfaction of the court, the attorneys, the jurors and all others having business relations with the courts as well as to the public, and in asking your renewed support I am confident that no delinquency can be charged against me. I have always endeavored to act fairly, to make no distinction, to do no injustice to any one, and to be an impartial public officer. I, therefore, ask your undivided support in the approaching election, and if it should be your pleasure to elect me, it will be mine always to faithfully subserve your trust and interests.
Very truly your obedient servant.
mh 20-2pe K. T. LUCAS.

CLERK OF THE MARKET.—I respectfully announce myself a candidate for the position of Clerk of the Market, subject to the conservative primary election.
mh 28-2pe H. B. WHITTINGTON.

IN RESPONSE TO A PARAGRAPH in the Gazette asking the use of my name as a candidate for election as Commonwealth's Attorney, I would say that the office in question would be a most acceptable one to me. I hereby announce myself as a candidate for that position, subject to the decision of the primary election, and earnestly ask my friends for their support. Respectfully, mh 16-2pe C. F. MARKELL.

I RESPECTFULLY ANNOUNCE myself a candidate for the office of Commonwealth's Attorney. This announcement is made subject to the action of the primary election.
mh 13 SAM'L G. BRENT.

MEDICINAL.
VEGETINE
FOR CHILLS, SHAKES, FEVER AND AGUE.
TANBORN, N. C., 1878.

Dear Sir—I feel very grateful for what your valuable medicine, Vegetine, have done in my family. I wish to express my thanks by informing you of the wonderful cure of my son, also, to let you know that Vegetine is the best medicine I ever saw for Chills, Shakes, Fever and Ague. My son was sick with measles in 1873, which left him with "joint" disease. My son suffered a great deal of pain at the time; the pain was so great he did not sleep, but cry. The doctors did not help him a particle, he could not lift his foot from the floor, he could not move without crutches. I read your advertisement in the Louisville Courier-Journal, that Vegetine was a great blood purifier and blood food. I tried one bottle, which was a great benefit. He tried on the second day, gradually gaining. He has taken eighteen bottles in all, and he is completely restored to health, walks without crutches or cane. He is twenty years of age. I have a younger son, fifteen years of age, who is subject to Chills. Whenever he feels cold, I give him one bottle of Vegetine, and that is the last of the Chills. Vegetine leaves no bad effect upon the system like most of the medicine recommended for Chills. I cheerfully recommend Vegetine for such complaints. I think it is the greatest medicine in the world. Respectfully,
Mrs. J. W. LLOYD.

Vegetine—When the blood becomes lifeless and stagnant, either from change of weather or of climate, want of exercise, irregular diet, or from any other cause, the Vegetine will renew the blood, carry off the putrid humors, cleanse the stomach, regulate the bowels, and impart a tone of vigor to the whole body.

VEGETINE FOR NERVOUSNESS AND GENERAL DEBILITY.
DEAR SIR, I have used Vegetine, Mass., 1878. We, the undersigned, having used Vegetine, take pleasure in recommending it to all those troubled with Nervousness of any kind, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, or General Debility. It being the great Blood Purifier. Sold by R. L. CROWELL & SONS, who sell more of it than all other patent medicine put together.

Mrs. L. F. PERKINS, Mrs. H. W. SCOTT, JOSEPH SLATE.

VEGETINE is the great health restorer—composed exclusively of herbs, roots and herbs. It is very pleasant to take; every child likes it.

VEGETINE FOR NERVOUS HEADACHE AND RHEUMATISM.
CINCINNATI, O., April 9, 1877.

H. R. STEVENS, Esq. Dear Sir—I have used your Vegetine for Nervous Headache, and also for Rheumatism, and have found entire relief from both, and take great pleasure in recommending it to all who may be likewise afflicted.

FIELD, A. GOOD, 108 Mill st., Cin. VEGETINE has restored thousands to health who had been long and painful sufferers.

VEGETINE DRUGGISTS' TESTIMONY.
Mr. H. R. STEVENS, Esq. Dear Sir—We have been selling your remedy the Vegetine, for about three years, and take pleasure in recommending it to our customers, and in no instance where a blood purifier would reach the case, has it ever failed to effect a cure, to our knowledge. It certainly is the most reliable of remedies. Respectfully, R. M. SHEPHERD & CO., Druggists, Mount Vernon, Ill.

Is acknowledged by all classes of people to be the best and most reliable blood purifier in the world.

TUESDAY EVENING, APRIL 30, 1878.

Sermon by Rev. Henry Ward Beecher.
The forenoon service at Plymouth Church, Sunday, were participated in by a very large congregation, a number of persons having to be provided for with seats in the aisles. In a tall glass vase on the pastor's table stood a luxurious bouquet of beautiful flowers, while other buds and blossoms lay upon the table. In making the usual number of announcements from the reading desk Mr. Beecher called particular attention to a proposed concert at which three ladies, whose names he mentioned, are to assume their respective parts in vocal and instrumental music and elocution. On concluding this notice he paused a while and then remarked, "Just think of it. It is enough to make St. Paul nestle in his grave to think of three women appearing in a church singing and speaking. However, it is my belief that when Paul forbade women to speak in church his meaning was very different to the interpretation that is given to it. I believe that if he were alive now he would take a front seat to hear some of our women sing and speak."

Taking as the groundwork of his discourse Matthew V, 1-10, Mr. Beecher said, at the time that our Saviour gave utterance to these beatitudes the whole land of Palestine was stirred up with excitement both of a religious and a political character. There never was a time when the Jews were more ardently desiring the fulfillment of God's promises to them than then. Holy men and women among them were fainting under the burden of hope deferred repeatedly. Had the people thought that Jesus was going to declare the law of happiness to them it would have attracted a large crowd to the Mount of Olives. And yet in this world we have all that makes up the sum of human happiness and well being, although how to gain the most happiness has been the world's search ever since the creation. It has been the common aim of men how to get for the human soul the greatest amount of happiness. If you read what Carlyle has said—so much, so well—as to the aims of life, you will find that he speaks in terms of contemptuous indignation of happiness. He asks, "What right have you to seek happiness? Happiness lies in work." And so if you go to Emerson, who is the soft echo of the hirsute Carlyle, you find the same train of thought. Everywhere you will find that men are thinking of this subject. Coming to Scripture we find that on the question of human nature it hits the mark every time in describing what men are in the flesh and what they ought to be in the spirit. That man may round himself up spiritually I think the Bible blesses with proofs. It stands up for integrity and manhood in the Old Testament and in the New, through to the end, till it lapses in apocalyptic light.

I take the Sermon on the Mount to mean spiritual manhood. Our Saviour there begins to tell men what they should seek, what they want. What are the blessings that bring happiness? "Blessed are the poor in spirit," right in the face and teeth of all humanity,
